HOMEWORK BOOKLET

In this booklet you will have the opportunity to reflect and think further about what was said and learned in the training. For any questions, please feel free to contact your trainer.

Day 1., January 29th, Monday

1. Think about what a student might need in a university environment, either based on your previous experience or what you have heard in the training. Make a list of the student's needs and possible difficulties.

2. Read the table of content of the study text of the courses we provided earlier and make connections between table of content and the list you created above.

Day 2., January 30th, Tuesday

1. Write down notes, important information and your thoughts about the community building activities you got to know on the first 2 days.

2. Based on what you learned on the training, try to create a possible community building event and make an outline or plan (topic, participants, place, programme, timing, goal of the event etc.)

Day 3., January 31st, Wednesday

1. Write a situation what happened to a student and what could you and the student do using communication and stress management skills

2. Optional: read more about communication and stress managemet in the courses

Day 4., February 1st, Thursday

Think about the experiences of the past few days and answer the questions below:

- 1. One thing you can change in your work next week
- 2. One thing you can add to your work next week
- 3. One thing that is the hardest that needs attention next week

Day 5., February 2nd, Friday

1. Summarise what you learned this week, what were the most important things you discovered or expereinced. What is the one thing you would pass on to a colleague who did not attend the training?:
